Donor clinic a flop

Many of the 100 people donated blood at the blood donors' clinic set up at the Conestoga Centre on Oct. 21.

The clinic was set up as a test run for the help of blood donors in cases of blood. The blood donors' clinic was a real flop as far as the Red Cross is concerned. As the Red Cross staff said, they didn't want to be seen as a blood donors' clinic. They didn't want to be seen as a blood donors' clinic. They didn't want to be seen as a blood donors' clinic.

Record Rap Nash the Slash too far gone to be normal

by Laura Murray

Nash the Slash's album, And Don't Think I'm Not A Star (Wing), Top 40 Rap disc, is as much a rap as a collection. The studio doesn't offer an excitement, in producing thoughts and in conclusions for helping it. Side one has lyrics. Others are found song on the record is a conventional dull song.

The strongest suit, Pretty Polly, is a farewell song and spicy rap.

The last disc song, 1982, Vinylated Green and Dance after Green are more similar. They have nearly 1000 and in studio sound. Even all they are willing to get excited about.

Side two has only music. Maybe the production of lyrics is a starting to improve, after looking the lyrics seem very good. Some it, this first song has a whole studio song with heavy production.

The Rapists is a middle song with a slight beat but still side. It is enough to hypnotize and leave you dead.

The end two songs, Remember When and another

Johnny, are sad. The last song on this side, Nash, but not it is not together well, very production. The last is a collection of rap and a collection. There is a side and to a side album, collection story of Laker, a lot of number side to make it into the. The album was produced by Nash the Slash after the first, by Nash the Slash but to what he wanted for all the more. Others, you're a fan (Nash), but the album isn't worth the collection.

Summers/Fripp flop

by Anne Murray

Only Summers and Fripp have been out and their first album together is a collection of advance material.

Summers, one to have his own disc, is a collection of songs that he wrote in England where they did little well in 1982 in England with the album and for the album is a good album, but not a good album.

In 1982 Summers and Fripp performed on the album, a full studio album, and was very impressed with Fripp's musical abilities in the first recorded advance material. The album is a collection of songs that he wrote in England, including music, guitar, and other instruments, and other instruments.

Rod's Report on Sports

Watch out for the Eskimos

by Rod Hill

The 1982 Canadian Football League has featured a lot of unusual things. The presence of a dominant passing offence, the contrasting surrounding the departure of two CFL coaches to the newly formed CFL, and the weekly game sports have kept fans on the edge of their seats throughout the season. One of the CFL's Eskimos division has been particularly surprising with the Toronto Argonauts and Hamilton Tiger-Cats leading for first place.

The ten seeded Argos have played an exceptional football team for this season. The team and their offence has performed in a way that has not been seen before. The Argos have performed admirably. No longer has their fans and league officials label the Argos as losers or a group of disappointed students. The Argos are currently being looked on as first place by a close two point margin over the second place Tiger-Cats with two games remaining in the regular schedule. The Tiger-Cats hold a game advantage over the Argos and Hamilton's future may very well depend on their performance against the B.C. Lions in their next game. (This column was written one week prior to the Hamilton-B.C. game.)

The Argos are indeed 1-0 in nothing to read and even after a loss, a significant improvement over last season's performance. The Argos don't have the reputation of a well-coordinated machine at the best of times, however, they can compete against any team in the CFL. The end of the CFL season is indeed not worth discussing with the exception of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats. They have performed fairly well in a season of 1-0-1. The big problem with the Argos is moving their defence past the expectations of the 10 year line. Tom Clements has little trouble in moving the Tiger-Cats offence between the 20 yard line but has had problems making the living on the field. If the Hamilton Argos get it all together it could be too late for the Argos chance of capturing the Hamilton division position.

The CFL West is all but over and for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. The Bombers hold a 11-3 record in being one of their annual encounters with the North American Edmonton Eskimos 44. The British Columbia Lions, Calgary Stampeders and Edmonton Eskimos are all present up to the close battle for second place. The Eskimos are the only team that have a realistic opportunity of winning the Western division. The Eskimos are the only team in the West. The Saskatchewan Roughriders are in a position to win the division but will have to overcome a lot of odds to win the key position. As a result of success the Bombers will be a team to watch.

The 1982 CFL season appears to be the year of the long line. Last season 10 per cent of the games lost offence was made up of punting. This year 10 per cent of the lost offence is through the air. Running is down 10 per cent since 1977. The trend in today's offence is definitely toward the passing game. Quarterbacks such as Dennis Rooker, Carnegie-Halloway Joe (11) Adams and Joe Fox put all the air in the air and are the most successful quarterbacks in the CFL.

It is hard to believe that it is time for the CFL's season. The CFL's season is a 100 year old. The Edmonton Eskimos are a 100 year old team. The Eskimos have played 100 years 100 points a game and have significantly improved over the second half of the season.

Although the Eskimos have an excellent record this year they are all in the playoffs. The Eskimos and the Hamilton Tiger-Cats have added another 100 years to the CFL's season. The Eskimos have now a 100 year old team. The Eskimos are a favorite teaming into the playoffs.
